

Cavalier King Charles Spaniel Club of Canada Regional Specialty
Cobourg Ontario 30/8/2024.

Firstly, thank you for invitation to judge your Regional Speciality on your prestigious National Weekend. It is always a great honour and privilege to judge this wonderful breed. Well done to Krista and her team for organising a well run event. We were looked after very well. The venue was excellent and spacious. It was lovely to see so many whole colours in attendance. I was very happy with all my main award winners, they had good breed type and excellent movement.

Junior Puppy Dog (3)

1st Sheppard Jewelcrofts Dressed To Kilt. 9 Months B&T. Pleasing head with a soft expression, dark round eye and rich tan markings. Liked this little dog front assembly, well laid shoulders, ample neck into level topline. Short compact body, well ribbed. Moved freely and has an excellent temperament.

2nd Davies Lane Windancer Fairisle Starry Night. 8 Month Tri. Head very much in the developmental stage. His body is well made. Good reach of neck on a firm topline. good angulation front and back. Very well balanced on the move, held his topline and tail. One for the future.

Senior Puppy Dog (1)

1st Greeley Crosstickle's Storyteller. Nicely marked Blenheim with rich chestnut markings. Good head shape, nice eye and good pigmentation. Good depth of chest and well sprung ribs. The dogs movement was hard to assess, would like to have seen stride out a bit more.

12-15 Month Dog (1)

1st Paul Lavenderhills Hope For The Future. Richly marked Blenheim, with lozenge. Well developed skull, high set ears. He has a dark round eye and good pigment and overall nice expression. Topline was OK , and body well developed. I would have liked to see him drive out more from the rear.

15-18 Month Dog (1)

Parris & Page Bluestara Aladdin's Light at High Flight. Young Blenheim with bags of potential. He looks lovely in profile. Elegant neck set on well laid shoulders, level topline and good rear angulation. He is presented in excellent condition, coat is of good texture and his markings are crisp. He is well balanced on the move and good head carriage. At the moment he lacks substance and can look very narrow front on. Hopefully he will fill out and he will one to reckon with. Showed well.

Bred by Exhibitors Dog (1)

Beliveau &Matte-Paquet. Havadream Finest Red. Ruby with Masculine head. Almost flat skull and high set ears. Large round dark eye with dense pigment. Well developed muzzle, overall a nice expression. Good reach of neck and level topline. Good substance and bone. Ribs well rounded and good angles front and back. Moved with plenty of drive and shows really well. Reserve Winners Dog.

Open Dog (1)

Daley Barrington's Heat of the Night. Ruby with a lovely soft, gentle expression. Liked his Type and head proportions, Large eyes and dark pigmentation. Well filled below the eyes and correct muzzle. His overall size and shape suited me. Not overdone in any way. Body well made and well angulated. Moved well front and back, held a good topline and tail carriage. Pleased to award him Winners Dog.

10 years of age, this glamorous Blenheim shown in full coat and well presented. Delightful expression. Broad skull with well set ears, well feathered. Dark round eyes and good pigmentation. Well tapered muzzle. Nice neck and shoulder placement. well developed body and firm topline. Moved out in style.Good reach and drive. Holds a good topline and correct tail carriage. Still enjoying showing. I wished I could have judged her, when she was younger. BEST VETERAN IN SHOW & AWARD OF MERIT.

Specials Only.

BEST OF BREED. Pearce Ch Mingchen Gentle River Breeze. I think it was love at first sight. This pretty Toy Spaniel ticked all the boxes for me. Beautiful head properties of good breed type. Very expressive eyes, dark and round. Well filled below the eyes. Nicely cushioned muzzle and neat lip line. Not overdone in any way. Slightly arched neck on a level topline. Moderately made with good angulation. Coat of correct texture and well presented. Well balanced on the move and used her short hocks to her best advantage. I know it's an old cliche, but this is one I could have definitely taken home. Couldn't deny her BIS.

BEST OF OPPOSITE Wood GCHB Karidana The One And Only Louis. I think his name is very apt. This dog is the ultimate showman. He has amazing ring presence and demands attention. Masculine head with well developed skull. Very appealing eyes well spaced gives him a soft expression. Has a well cushioned muzzle. Great reach of neck which he uses well when standing and on the move. Well angulated Front and rear. Body is well made and has good substance and excellent muscle tone. Covers the ground with ease with good reach and drive. A lot to like about him.

SELECT DOG Whitney & Slusher GCH Fields Edge Casey Jones. Very glamorous Blenheim with lozenge. Really liked his head type. Very handsome. Dark round eye and dense pigmentation. Just the right amount of cushioning under the eyes and muzzle. Good reach of neck which is accentuated by his broad white collar. Level topline and tailset. He has the correct amount of substance and well angulated. He presents a lovely profile. Moves with purpose holding a good topline and tail carriage. He is presented in good coat and condition.

SELECT BITCH. Barr GCH Gentle Star Neverending Story. Blenheim with lozenge. Lovely breed type. Mother of my Best Puppy so similar in many ways. Good breeding. Very pretty head, dark eye and pigment. Well tapered muzzle and a soft, gentle expression. Her body is a picture of moderation. Elegant reach of neck on a short compact body. Well angled front and back. On the move she skips across the ground with ease. Drives well in rear. Holds a good topline and tail carriage. Shows well.

AWARD OF MERIT. Davies Lane & Rose. CH Karlee Gray Stone Top Hat N Tails. Heavily marked Tri. Loved his head and expression . It is so hard to get a soft expression with a Tri. He has great clarity in his head markings. Most beautiful eyes. almost black and round . Rich tan markings over eyes and on face. Right amount of cushioning on muzzle. I liked his overall shape and size . Very well balanced on the move. Good topline and tailset. Very nice dog.

AWARD OF MERIT. Squirrel CH Embee's Shimmer And Shine. Quality B&T. Liked her head shape. Large dark round eyes, well spaced. Nicely cushioned muzzle. Rich tan face markings. Nice size. Good spring of rib and short in loin. Has a good reach of neck and level topline. Well laid shoulders and good front action. Moves out well and looks lovely in profile . Excellent tail carriage.

Baby Puppy Bitch. (2)

1st Smith Whimsy Sigma Chi Francesca At Londocor. 6 month Blenheim, well marked. Very pretty face with soft expression. Nice eye and good pigment. Short compact body, moved really well for one so young. I predict a good future for this one. Developing well. Good temperament.
